

Career Exploration & Survival in the Arts

a free seminar for those who want to make a living in the creative arts

Saturday, November 5th

Registration 9:00 a.m. Program 9:30 a.m.

Fulton-Montgomery Community College

Room C-110, Classroom Building

This informative seminar will help you if your goal is to make a living in the creative arts, including getting started and perpetuating your career in the visual, musical or performing arts.

The speakers' focus will be on strategies of starting and maintaining a viable career in the fine arts. The panelists will discuss their experiences in navigating a career in the arts. The two panelists will be musician Peter Davis and photographer Mike Miller.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will conclude with a question and answer session. Refreshments will be provided.

The seminar is free to all. Area artists, students and aspiring artists, and anyone interested in learning about a career in the arts are encouraged to attend.
